

An aerial photograph of the Ngaruawahia High School campus. The school buildings are primarily white with grey roofs, with some blue accents. They are arranged in a U-shape around a central courtyard. A large green field, likely a sports field, is visible to the left and bottom of the school. In the foreground, there are residential houses with various roof colors (red, white, grey) and a paved road. The overall scene is a mix of greenery, buildings, and open space.
